

OUR EDUCATION IS WORKING. SO ARE OUR GRADUATES.

At The Art Institutes schools, our graduates' success gives us a lot to be proud of. And gives you a lot to think about.

The Art Institute of California™—Los Angeles

Creativity has real-world value.

At The Art Institutes schools, our goal is to prepare our students for fulfilling careers, doing what they love. In each of our hands-on education programs, everything we teach is grounded in the real world they'll be entering as they start their careers. And as they enter the job market to pursue their passion, they take with them the portfolio, interviewing and networking skills, and industry insights they need to get in front of employers.

And we have the numbers to prove it.

Our grads have value. Just ask the employers who hired them.

Employers who know what they're looking for take a good look at our graduates. They value the fact that our design, media arts, and culinary programs are led by instructors from the real working world. And many employers actually add value themselves, helping us make sure our programs are in step with industry trends.

And thanks to our system of over 40 schools across North America, we're always forging new relationships and making new connections with employers in the creative professions.

We can help you build strong job-seeking skills.

Our Career Services staff supports students' career planning efforts with tips and techniques that can lead to successful job searches. We have contacts in your community and can help you connect to hiring managers in other cities by leveraging our network of Career Services advisors throughout North America.

We provide:

- Help with job search skills, resumé writing, interviewing, and networking
- Help finding part-time work while still in school
- Help pursuing full-time work after graduation
- A Portfolio Show during final quarter attended by potential employers
- Opportunities to meet employers at career days and job fairs
- Current insights into the skills employers are looking for in candidates
